Education Committee: RAA takes a leadership perspective when it comes to education. This committee is charged with examining the various pathways by which to improve and increase educational standards for reflexologists in the United States. Committee members must take into consideration many aspects when developing policies, including access to educational opportunities, cost and state legalities.

Membership Committee: A year-round committee that has the exciting responsibility for showing reflexology practitioners and proponents the benefits of membership in RAA. It also assists the RAA board in developing those benefits and identifying populations that would find membership mutually advantageous.

Contact: RAAPublicRelations@reflexology-usa.org

Public Relations: Looks at how RAA represents itself and reflexology to the public. Activities may include developing statements, policies and announcements regarding RAA's presence on social media, partnerships with schools and related businesses, and website, conference and magazine advertising guidelines.

Contact: RAAWebsiteChair@reflexology-usa.org

Website/Technology Committee: This committee is responsible for maintenance and upgrades to the website and secure storage of RAA's historical data sensitive member information.
